

=====

AFS220     noun exams

=====

1. Fish species in the northern and southern zones differ from those of the equatorial zone in major ways except one of theseâ€¦

The snapper and croaker fauna in the sub-tropical zones give the same catch rate per unit effort as far as the edge of the continental shelf.

The snapper fauna in the two zones have larger and more valuable fishes like the breems and the snappers than the equatorial snapper fauna.

--->> The croaker fauna and catfish in the tropical zones give the different catch rate per unit effort as far as the edge of the continental shelf.

The occurrence of significant quantities of the commercially valuable large croaker, and the hake.

2. Â  â€¦.are characterised by high fecundity in reproduction and are fond of guarding their young ones.

--->> Tilapias

Synodontis courteti

Sardinella

Clarias

3. â€¦are referred to as up-side down catfish.

Sardinella aurita

--->> Mochokidae

Synodontis courteti

Cichlidae

4. Which of these options is a swimming species marine crabs found in Nigeria watersâ€¦..

--->> Portunidae

Gecarcinidae

Geryonidae

Crassostrea

5. Water body that has salinity ranging from 1-34 ppt is calledâ€¦

Marine water

--->> Brackish water

Fresh water

Oceanic water

6. The marine crabs of estuarine species found in Nigeria waters is calledâ€¦.

Portunidae

--->> Gecarcinidae

Geryonidae

Crassostrea

7. Which of these describes mandibular type of fish mouth?

Teeth are present on the sides of the upper jaws

The presence of teeth in front margin of the upper jaw

--->> Teeth are present on the sides of the lower jaw

The presence of teeth on the pharyngeal bones at the back of the mouth on the ventral and dorsal plates.

8. â€¦has been the country with the widest or largest commercial production level of crab in the world

America

--->> Japan

Nigeria

China

9. ...â€¦are the most abundant and constitute about 75% and 18% respectively by weight of pole-and-line catches.

--->> Skipjack

Res fin tuna

Bonga fish

Catfish

10. Which of these marine crabs found in Nigeria waters is deep sea crabs

Portunidae

Gecarcinidae

--->> Geryonidae

Crassostrea