

A new capital a company re-acquires from the existing shareholders after distributing all earnings to shareholders is known as _____
Rights Shares

_____ shows the present statement of a business and the financial condition of an accounting entity as at a particular point in time.
Balance sheet

_____ are not owners of the company, but they provide money to enterprises as loan which are debt.
Creditors

The mix of equity and debt is called?
capital structure

_____ is the pillar upon which all economic activities stand
Finance

Financial market trades on financial assets which promises future benefits in all of the following except ____ Promissory notes

BFN209 tma1 10/10

The risk that threatens the complete or partial loss of the postponed fruits of effort can be classified into the following except ____ Financial risks

Finance functions include the following EXCEPT.
expenditure function

The Encyclopedia of Banking and Finance classified finance into three categories except ____

A general term to denote the theory and practice of relationship management and investment analysis

Finance evolved from economics as its branch in the early part of the _____ century 20th

Who defined finance as to lend, to settle debt, pay ransom, furnish, and procure.
The Shorter Oxford English Dictionary

Another name for the management of money is _____
Finance

The management of Finance is the pillar upon which all _____ activities stand
Economic

Money is the medium of exchange in business, the other two elements are production(operation) and _____ Marketing

the provision of money at the time it is required is described as ?.
finance

___ is when a company distributes all its earnings to shareholders and acquires new capital from same source by issuing new shares
Rights Shares

One of the following is not a medium of exchange in business
Investment

1) The internal finance in a business is also known as ____
a) Equity

2) The following are the fields of finance except ____
a) Production/Operation

3) The proportion of profits from a firm distributed as dividend is called the ____
c) Dividend payout ratio

4) A type of finance which is solely owned and contributed by the stakeholders (within) and is also known as equity finance is called ____
c) Internal Finance

7) Shareholders that receive dividend at a fixed rate and enjoy priority over ordinary shareholders are ____
d) Preference shareholders

8) the field of finance originally covers which of the following instruments of Finance

10) The common denominator for the full range of activities performed in business is known as ____
b) Money

The internal finance in a business is also known as ____ Equity

Without the existence of _____ No business can survive
Finance

The management of Finance is the pillar upon which all _____ activities stand
Economic

_____ defined Finance as Oyekanmi (2003)

Another name for the management of money is ____
Finance

One of the following is not a medium of exchange in business
Investment

_____ activities in a business provide goods and services to customers Operation

In any private or public institution _____ plays an important role
Finance

The common denominator for the full range of activities performed in business is known as _____
Money

The following are all forms of near-money except _____ Preference shares

Buyers of shares are called _____ and they are the legal-owners of the business whose shares they hold.
Shareholders

_____ are for physical or tangible assets such as plant, machinery, wheat, office, gold, buildings Capital market

The common denominator for the full range of activities performed in the financial sector is _____
Money

Capital expenditures which are referred to as capital budgeting decision are referred to as _____ Investment decisions

_____ invest their money in the shares of a company in the expectation of a return on their invested capital.
Shareholders

_____ is called borrowed fund or finance and referred to also as debt.
External Finance

The return on shareholder\'s investment in shares consists of Dividend and _____ Capital gain

Money is the medium of exchange in business, the other two elements are production(operation) and _____
Marketing

The proportion of profits from a firm distributed as dividend is called the _____ Dividend payout ratio

A type of finance which is solely owned and contributed by the stakeholders (within) and is also known as equity finance is called _____
Internal Finance