

NOUN EXAMS

E.g In the Netherlands and Belgium the movement was led by the — van den Elsen and Melaerts.
Roman Catholic priest

The industrial Revolution started from — Great Britain

In cooperative society the extent of cooperative liability is usually—to members equity contributions Limited

Another reason for failure was situation where the management and control of the cooperative business was in hands of few members which made the management and control of the cooperative Undemocratic

In cooperative organization, decision making process is by simple majority on the basis of — One man one vote

Which types of cooperative perform more than one of function Multi purpose

In cooperative business model, the owners have double , that is, the members of the cooperative society are the owners of their business and they are equally the users of the cooperative business identity

Membership of cooperatives should be and voluntary and open in August 1937, the Cooperative Cocoa Sales Society became the first primary society to be registered Gbedum

Charles Fourier was died in the year 1837

co-operatives are democratic organizations controlled by their members

By 1943, the First Co-operative Training Institute in the Western part of the country, the Federal Co-operative College, was established in — Ibadan

Industrial Revolution.Â in modern history, theÂ processÂ of change from an agrarian and handicraft economy to one dominated by industry and mechanical machine cooperative societies are considered to be business organization with primary objective of promoting their members well-being through collective owned enterprise

Industrial Revolution process began in Britain in the century 17th

Patronage Refund principle encourages members to patronize the cooperative shop as refund payments were given to members based on the volume of their purchases

King's articles and activities together with those of his other colleagues were published in the Co-operative magazine they founded called the – cooperator

Dr. William King was died in the year 1865

Limited interest should be paid on share capital while the rest of profit realized should be re invested in the business while some part should be committed to membersâ€™ education and statutory fund. reserves

Men and women serving as elected representatives in cooperative society are – – to the members who elected or appointed them accountable

Which international body was set up for the promotion of co-operative ideas and spreading the principles of co-operation around the world ica

Cooperatives had existed in various forms in all parts of the world since man started to live in group

Patronage Refund principle encourages members to patronize the cooperative shop as refund payments were given to members based on the volume of their purchase

Rochdale shop was sold based on the prevailing price. market

Cooperative is a business model owned and controlled by its members

In cooperative organization, decision making process is by simple majority on the basis of one man one vote the acronym SHGs represent self-help groups the first Registrar of Co-operative Societies for Nigeria, established the Co-operative office at Moor Plantation, in town ibadan

The indigenous cooperatives are those forms traditional cooperation that existed before the enactment of cooperative ordinance in 1935

Consequent on the 1937 review of the cooperative principles, many cooperative societies from different social and political background were registered and admitted as members of the ilo

Charles Fourier was born in the year 1772

The cooperative societies of the pre colonial era were largely organized in nature without any form of documentation and written laws and regulations, informal

The of Cooperative Societies could register, audit, inspect, hold inquiries on, and settle disputes among Cooperatives. He could also liquidate unsuccessful registered cooperatives.
registrar

The main features involved in the Industrial Revolution were technological, socioeconomic, and cultural

Owen and King defined the rules and principles of cooperative consumer