

NOUN EXAMS

There are _____ broad rural development strategies to be considered.

three (3)

_____ are involved in solving the problems of when, what and where in marketing a.

physical

There are _____ specific functions of physical functions

a.

four (4)

_____, to many people, simply implies food production

Agriculture

An effective _____ mechanism is dependent on well-informed buyers and sellers.

pricing

___ are also used by producers to allocate resources

prices

_____ includes activities such as the search for the sources of supply and the act of giving out money in exchange for the goods purchased buying

_____ function aptly be called the grease that makes the wheels of the marketing facilitating

In _____ strategy, importance is also attached to technological change a.

reformist

Mixed farming is the integration of _____ production and crop production on the same farm

animal