

Question: The concept of alienation means                      Answer:loss of identity
Question: The concept of symbiosis in Cultural Transmission theory was used by                      Answer:Robert Park
Question: Misdemeanor is any crime punishable with                      for less than three years but more than six months
Answer:imprisonment
Question: Felony is a crime that may be punishable by                      or imprisonment for three years or more
Answer:death
Question: Differential association theory is referred to as the                      Answer:Chicago school
Question: Cesare Lombroso 1836 1909 was credited for his development of                      Answer:biological theory of crime
Question: According to                      theories crime and delinquency can ironically be represented as                      conformity
Answer: Sub cultural
Question: According to symbolic interaction theory crime differs in its meaning of                      Answer:symbols
Question: Delinquency and Opportunity posits that there is greater pressure towards criminality on the                      classes because they have less opportunity to succeed by legitimate means
Answer:working
Question: Three basic body types were distinguished as signs of criminality these are Answer:Question: These theorists claim that the mesomorphic body types were more likely to                      Answer:commit crime
Question: The differential association theorists believe that criminal behaviour is a                      Answer:learning process
Question: The crimes against a person include such deviant acts as murder                      and rape
Answer:assault
Question: The                      profile of the criminal is what Kork and McCorkle referred to as offenders in fact
Answer:first
Question: The                      profile of the criminal is called criminal by adjudication
Answer:second
Question: The                      profile of the criminal is called undetected offender in fact
Answer:third
Question: Modern Criminological ideology is a body of systematically transmitted forms of                      Answer:knowledge
Question: Interactionalism criminology also known as is the basis of Erving Goffman analysis of crime
Answer:symbolic interactionism
Question: An organised scheme whose aim is to extort money illegally by threats or intimidation is called                      Answer:Racketeering
Question: Victims whose actions gave way for their victimization are called                      Answer:precipitative victims
Question: The theory that relates the whole human body parts to crime is called                      Answer:functionalism
Question: The scientific study of punishment is called                      Answer:Penology
Question: the functionalist theory states that every aspect of the                      influences criminal behaviour in its own special way
Answer:society
Question: The                      theory states that deviant is socially transmitted from one generation to the other
Answer:cultural transmission
Question: According to Marx crime is the product of inadequate                      Answer:social conditions
Question: According to the Functionalist theory crime relates to a consequence of societal requirements                      and institutions
Answer:customs
Question: Criminals who are in the hiding are referred to as criminals                      Answer:at large
Question: According to criminologists the environment in which a person lives influences                      Answer:criminality
Question: Delinquency area and criminal sub cultures are the works of                      Answer:all of the above
Question: A                      is defined as the agency set up by government to define and apply the law to order its enforcement and to settle disputed points on which individual or groups do not agree
Answer:B: court
Question: Three basic body types were distinguished as signs of criminality these are mesomorphs ectomorphs and                      Answer:A: endomorphs
Question: Given the whole total of human social experience crime should be that which contradicts the collective                      of the social group
Answer:sentiments
Question: Crime is defined as any act that the law
Answer:violates
Question: what is a list of specific forms of human conduct which has been outlawed by political authority which applies uniformity to all persons living under the political authority and which is enforced by punishment administered by the state called Answer: Criminal Law

Question: Criminal law usually prescribes a punishment for a particular deviance Answer: specific

Question: According to crime is a category which can be defined only by reference to the specific social norms and values of the society in which it occurs Answer: Emile Durkheim

Question: The criminal laws are usually enacted by the authority Answer: political

Question: Criminal laws are usually in regard to those behaviours that are termed as deviant Answer: specific

Question: criminal law is a branch of public law which deals with the relationship between members of the public and the Answer: state

Question: Juries weigh the degree of intent in determining the of a crime Answer: seriousness

Question: A major objective of criminal law is the prevention and of crime Answer: control

Question: Criminal laws are usually in regard to those behaviours that are termed as deviant Answer: D: specific

Question: According to crime is a category which can be defined only by reference to the specific social norms and values of the society in which it occurs Answer: A: Emile Durkheim

Question: what is a list of specific forms of human conduct which has been outlawed by political authority which applies uniformity to all persons living under the political authority and which is enforced by punishment administered by the state called Answer: A: Criminal Law

Question: Given the whole total of human social experience crime should be that which contradicts the collective of the social group Answer: B: sentiments

Question: The three fold classification of crime are felony and simple offences Answer: misdemeanour

Question: what is simply called a science of crime Answer: Criminology

Question: Criminologists believe that crime is in all societies Answer: normal

Question: Members of all cultures develop mechanisms for Answer: internalisation

Question: Social control is used to enforce Answer: conformity

Question: The three types of norms were categorized based on their level of to the dominant members of the society Answer: importance

Question: Crimes may also be divided into two large groups based on the severity of the meted out Answer: punishment

Question: When people's expectations of behaviour are suddenly violated they experience culture Answer: shock

Question: The reflect a society's beliefs about correct and incorrect behaviours Answer: norms

Question: Law is a term derived from the Anglo Saxon word lagu which means to Answer: determine