

CSS133 exams noun

The ego _____ between the contrasting needs of the id and superego, and attempts to fulfill the desires of the id within the boundaries of social conventions

ANS: Mediates

There were a _____ of thinking about crime, and that criminology is only one version among others

ANS: variety of ways

The scientific style of reasoning was the _____ thinking about crime_

ANS: Enlightenment

The psychological, physiological, social as well as environmental factors are important in _____ why an individual exerts criminal behaviour

ANS: determining

The superego is the component of the mind that represents _____ and conscience_

ANS: morality

_____ defines criminology as the study of the social origins of criminal law, the administration of criminal justice, the causes of criminal behaviour, and the prevention and control of crime

ANS: Gresham Sykes

To Freud, crime and delinquency are a consequence of an _____ between the three factors of the subconscious mind: the id, the ego, and the superego_

ANS: imbalance

The Enlightenment writers, emphasised the importance of _____ rather than the theological forms of reasoning which are dominated by irrational, superstitious and prejudices_

ANS: reason and experience

Sutherland and Cressey define criminology as the body of knowledge regarding _____ as social phenomena_

ANS: delinquency and crime

The id (instinct gratification) is the component of the subconscious mind that is self-serving, _____, and concerned with self-gratification_

ANS: egocentric