

Course Code
crs213

Question

The prelude to the period of the church in the division of the salvation history was a _____-day association of the disciples with Jesus.

Answer
forty

Question

The author, traditionally identified as _____ the Evangelist, is characteristically concerned with social ethics, the poor, women, and other oppressed groups.

Answer
Luke

Question

Who supported a variation of the Griesbach Hypothesis in about 1835?

Answer
Strauss and Baur

Question

Luke-Acts has views on Christology, eschatology, and soteriology that are similar to those found in Pastoral epistles, which are often seen as pseudonymous and of a later date than the undisputed _____ Epistles.

Answer
Paul's

Question

One of the major interests of the Gospel of _____ was to portray Christianity as divine, respectable, law-abiding, and international.

Answer
Luke

Question

The duality in the Gospel of Matthew as a Jewish and Gentile Gospel, more than any other Gospel, reflects the nature of the city of _____, which had both a large Jewish population as well as being the site of the earliest Gentile mission.

Answer
Antioch

Question

Speaking about the theology of Luke-Acts, some scholars point to conscious but different significant _____ within the early Church, thus suggesting a later date of composition of the books.

Answer

traditions

Question

In the Gospel of _____, women played more prominent role in the life of Jesus than they do in other Gospels.

Answer

Luke

Question

Women are main actors in several stories from Jesus' public ministry in the Gospel of _____ than other Gospels.

Answer

Luke

Question

The author of the First Gospel possessed considerable _____ of rabbinic traditions and methods.

Answer

knowledge

Question

The prelude to the period of the church in the division of the salvation history was a _____-day association of the disciples with Jesus.

Answer

forty

Question

The author, traditionally identified as _____ the Evangelist, is characteristically concerned with social ethics, the poor, women, and other oppressed groups.

Answer

Luke

Question

Who supported a variation of the Griesbach Hypothesis in about 1835?

Answer

Strauss and Baur

Question

Luke-Acts has views on Christology, eschatology, and soteriology that are similar to those found in Pastoral epistles, which are often seen as pseudonymous and of a later date than the undisputed _____ Epistles.

Answer

Paul's

Question

One of the major interests of the Gospel of _____ was to portray Christianity as divine, respectable, law-abiding, and international.

Answer

Luke

Question

The duality in the Gospel of Matthew as a Jewish and Gentile Gospel, more than any other Gospel, reflects the nature of the city of _____, which had both a large Jewish population as well as being the site of the earliest Gentile mission.

Answer

Antioch

Question

Speaking about the theology of Luke-Acts, some scholars point to conscious but different significant _____ within the early Church, thus suggesting a later date of composition of the books.

Answer

traditions

Question

In the Gospel of _____, women played more prominent role in the life of Jesus than they do in other Gospels.

Answer

Luke

Question

Women are main actors in several stories from Jesus' public ministry in the Gospel of _____ than other Gospels.

Answer
Luke

Question
The author of the First Gospel possessed considerable _____ of rabbinic traditions and methods.

Answer
knowledge

Try Another Search