

ece223 noun exams

Play gives the child a chance to

(D) All of the above

The learning about the relationship between two or more concept is

(A) Rule learning

The place where sick children are kept during lesson periods in ECCE centres is called

(C) Sick bay

Curiosity brings interest, which in turn

(B) Aids learning

The curriculum of a child's growth is from general to

(B) Specific

Environment included

(D) All of the above

The general atmosphere of the ECCE programme should include

(D) All of the above

The holistic change which occur in an individual child occur line is tenure-----

(A) Development

The two basic aspects involving human growth and development are and

(A) Maturation and learning

The sub-theories of movement is associated with

(A) Cognitive theory of learning

Implies increase in size, height and weight of the child

(B) Growth

The following play materials are specifically recommended for use in the day care institution except

(A) Swings

The following materials would not enhance children play in the water and sand play area

(D) Climbers

Organismic factors refers to those factors that lie with

(A) Person

Materials from various learning ECCE centres should be labelled and kept in boxes for easy

(B) Identification

Cannot provide a stimulating environment for a Pre-school child

(A) Provision of only indoor play materials

This is one of concepts of Erickson's theory

(B) trust vs distrust

In exploration, Children are expected to do the following

(A) Read and write

The beginning of playful activity can be observed from the period of

(A) Infancy

Fredrick Friebl and Maria Montessori Postulation bothers on

(B) Pre-school teaching

Child knowledge or observation of facts gained by means of the eye senses are called

(B) Visual experiences

One of the following is not purpose of preschools play

(C) Feel very free among his colleagues