

ece225 noun examss

The following are effects of general intellectual challenges on learning EXCEPT

(D) sleeping

___ is a software designed specifically to teach children with learning delays and difficulties such as Autism and Down's syndrome

(D) ABA materials

Far sightedness means ____

(C) hyperopia

Which of the following could not be used to identify giftedness in children?

(A) intellectual tests

Which of the following is NOT a visual problem in a child?

(C) articulatory disorder

Children with general intellectual challenges can also be referred to as

(B) hydrophilic

To determine whether deafness is prelingual or postlingual, ___ is considered

(A) height

Any suspicion in specific learning challenge could lead to the following further actions EXCEPT

(D) beating

The types of hearing challenge that relates to problem in the outer and middle ear is called ____

(C) conductive loss

Children that exhibit slowness in learning to sit, walk and talk are said to have low ____

(B) apgar's score

___ can be regarded as both the micro and macro unit to which a child is born

(B) peer group

Society has structure, beliefs, government, language and ____

(D) practices

___ refers to all objective condition such as blindness and cleft palate

(C) disability

The deprivations in a child can be ____

(D) cognitive

The ability to communicate through the use of spoken words is ____

(D) speech

A situation where there is an extra chromosome in the G group of chromosome that are connected to chromosome 21 is called ____

(C) chromosomal aberration

The two major types of education are the formal and ____
(B) traditional

The early childhood education of the child in Nigeria starts from ____
(A) home

Age of the ____ has very high correlate with incidence of Down's syndrome
(B) mother

Which of the following can lead down syndrome?
(D) chromosomal aberration

Which of the following is a specialist that could attend to a child with physical and health related challenges?
(C) psychologist

The intervention that seeks to control the environment so as to affect the variabkes that influence the child is called ____
(B) ecologic intervention

The demonstration of behaviour by one individuaio to be limited by another is referred to as ____
(B) modeling