

ece227 noun exams

â€¦ is the means by which people are linked together in an organisation to achieve its common goal(s)
(D) Communication

The allocation of teachers to the appropriate classes is
(C) Staffing

The virtue of friendliness by being personally interested in the welfare and problems of both staff and pupils is a/an â€¦ trait of a good administrator
(D) appearance skill

Pupils' evaluation cannot be done by
(A) teachers' punctuality

The early childhood institution is an organisation that has specified
(C) goals

A network of relationships among individuals, and activities, which define the structural and or strategic arrangement of personsâ€™ positions and roles is a/an
(B) organisation

In communication, â€¦ is harmonizing the differences in opinion as to how group goals can be achieved and individual objectives can be harmonized within group objectives to realise the stated goals of the organisation
(A) coordination

The planned daily routine which shows the sequence of activities for any particular period of the day is the
(D) timetable

The highest of Maslow's hierarchy of needs is
(B) intellectual ability

The duration of periods for nursery school classes should not be more than 25 minutes in the
(A) morning

The fiscal management unit is responsible for the development of the school
(C) cost allocation plans

The main function of educational administrators can generally be said to be that of
(C) implementation

Sound judgment, resourcefulness, initiative, broad-mindedness, originality and ability to foresee and analyse problems and be able to proffer solutions are intellectual qualities attached to
(A) leadership

The most important factor needed for the success of any education enterprise is the
(D) teacher

The list of all pupils enrolled each year into the school can be found in the

(C) admission register

Daily record of the significant happenings which takes place when the school is in session can be found in the
(B) log book

Factors such as the ratio of pupils to teachers, the teaching space available, the availability of facilities and equipment should guide the head teacher in planning the
(B) timetable

No matter how small the money may be, the school administrator supposed to keep it in the
(D) bank

School administrator know what payment has been made and for what through the
(B) cash flow

In conflict management, when negotiations fail or get stuck, parties often call in an independent
(A) mediator.

One of the roles of supervisors in school is providing or giving demonstration in various aspects of teaching skills to
(D) teachers.

The â€¦ of administration are to guide the administrator on possible actions in specific situations.
(D) principles